

Dear _____,

I recently agreed to an individual flexibility arrangement which related to the 15% ECEC Worker Retention Payment.

Termination of individual flexibility arrangement

I hereby give notice that as an employee I am terminating this individual flexibility arrangement, with the termination to take effect no less than 13 weeks from today's date.

I thought that the Individual flexibility arrangement was the only way to access the 15% ECEC Worker Retention Payment. I now know that you can access the ECEC Worker Retention Payment by joining up to the union-approved ECEC multi-employer agreement instead. 64 other employers are already on this agreement.

I want you to join the ECEC multi-employer agreement because this is the fastest and simplest way to provide the 15% and offers the most security and protection for workers.

Regards
Kind regards,
